Rewards and Good Service Entries to Police Officers.

Notes and Orders.

1 The Commr. of Police is authorised to grant rewards to police officers of the rank of Sub-Inspectors and below unde his control (other than special rewards) up to a limit of Rs. 100/- in any one set of circumstances subject to budget provision- vide Police Order 42(iii), Book II. Resident's sanction is therefore not necessary to grant a reward of -- Rs. 15/- to Sub-Inspector Anugraham.

2 As regards good service entries please see Police Order 64, Book I. It does not seem that the sanction of the -- Resident is necessary to grant a Good Service Entry to -- Inspector Sarvothama Rao. Only in the case of rewards to Inspectors the sanction of the Resident is necessary- vide S.N. 2 of file 245/36.

3 If approved the file may be sent U.O. to the Commr. of Police for information and return.

4 In future Rewards to an Inspector, Shelter in cash or by G.S.E. (they are exactly the same so far as merit goes, & cash rewards have now been absolutely abolished) is granted only by the I.G.P. as the Resident has to sanction many rewards to Inspectors it is to be assumed that he accords sanction all

5 as regards the 2nd, the basic rule is that when ~~[illegible]~~ named, passes or fails to succeed in the same set of circumstances, the lesser fell should be to the authority empowered to record the senior most officer on the Roll. The reason is obvious, that it would be incongruous for a subordinate authority to give reasons & in circumstances which the senior authority might not consider deserving. The general procedure is for the senior authority to record the ~~[illegible]~~ officer whom he alone is empowered to record or to instruct the subordinate authority to sanction the remainder, if he finds the case deserving

Yours sincerely

The Secretary to the Hon'ble the Resident

4 In this case the Comm. can award a good service entry to the Inspector & cash reward to the S.I.: S there is no objection to his taking action. If the recommendation were for rewards for both, he would no doubt hold up the S.I's case until he saw that the Resident had sanctioned the Inspector's reward.
